  - 13) the deadline for the implementation of the resolution,
  - 14) other decisions of the Management Board.

§ 15

1. The minutes shall be drawn up in writing or in a form equivalent to writing no later than within 3 (three) working days after the meeting.
2. The Management Board members participating in the meeting of the Management Board shall have the opportunity to examine the minutes and submit comments or dissenting opinions to the minutes.
3. The minutes are signed at least by the Management Board member chairing the meeting or ordering the voting.
4. If a member of the Management Board raises an objection to the whole or a part of the minutes, the Corporate Services Office shall submit the matter to be considered by the Management Board at the next meeting.

§ 16

1. In justified cases a resolution of the Management Board may be adopted by circulation upon the decision of the President of the Management Board or a member of the Management Board acting in the capacity of the President pursuant to § 4 Section 1 Item 1) of the Regulations. Draft resolutions to be passed by circulation shall be submitted to all members of the Management Board for approval and shall be binding after being signed by the absolute majority of the members of the Management Board, including the President of the Management Board or a member of the Management Board acting in the capacity of the President. Such resolution shall come into force on the date on which a member of the Management Board signs a resolution that has been previously signed by at least half of the members of the Management Board.

2. If any of the members of the Management Board raises an objection to passing a proposed resolution by circulation, the proposed resolution must be submitted to the Management Board at its next meeting.
3. A resolution may be passed by circulation under a condition that all members of the Management Board have been notified of the proposal to pass that resolution.
4. A resolution adopted by circulation shall be enclosed to the minutes of the first meeting of the Management Board called after its adoption.

§ 16a

With the consent of the President of the Management Board, members of the Management Board absent from the meeting may participate in the meeting and voting via means of direct remote communication in manners providing for simultaneous communication in real time and mutual identification among all members of the Management Board participating in the meeting or voting (e.g. video-conference, conference call).

§ 17

1. The Corporate Services Office shall inform organizational units and persons to which resolutions pertain of the content of the passed resolutions, immediately after the meeting is closed.
2. The obligation to inform shall not relate to persons or organizational units whose representatives were present at a meeting.

§ 18

1. Original minutes shall be kept in the files of the Corporate Services Office.
2. Copies of minutes shall be handed over by the Corporate Services Office to the Management Board's members. The President of the Management Board shall establish a list of Bank's organizational units entitled to receive copies of the minutes.
3. The Director of the Corporate Services Office prepares an excerpt from the minutes of meeting of the Management Board.
4. The Corporate Services Office shall pass on to the appropriate persons and organizational units in the Bank extracts from the minutes relating to them, unless the Management Board or its President decides otherwise.

§ 19

1. The President of the Management Board, other Management Board's members shall supervise the implementation of Management Board's resolutions by persons and organizational units subordinate to them.

2. The Corporate Services Office shall maintain a register of Management Board's resolutions.

1. Persons and organizational units in the Bank responsible for implementing the Management Board's resolutions shall be obliged to inform the Corporate Services Office on the manner of implementing the resolution immediately after such implementation.
2. A person or an organizational unit in the Bank responsible for implementing the Management Board's resolution that is not able to implement such resolution or to implement it in a timely manner shall be obliged to inform a supervising member of the Management Board and the Corporate Services Office.
3. The Corporate Services Office shall assess whether the way in which a resolution is implemented corresponds with its text and shall pass on information concerning this matter to an appropriate member of the Management Board. If there are doubts as to whether the way a resolution has been implemented corresponds with its content, the Director of the Corporate Services Office shall submit the matter to an appropriate member of the Management Board for their decision.
4. If it is found that a person or an organizational unit in the Bank that is responsible for implementing a resolution has failed to do so within a period established by the Management Board, the Corporate Services Office shall send a reminder to such a person or an organizational unit and inform an appropriate member of the Management Board on this matter.

Chapter IV. Information provided to the Supervisory Board

1. The Management Board shall provide the Supervisory Board with the following financial information:
  - 1) quarterly financial information, including its comparison with the budget approved in the annual plan and in relation to last year,

2. The Corporate Services Office shall present incoming correspondence to members of the Management Board and, after such correspondence has been endorsed by an addressee, shall provide it to appropriate persons and organizational units in the Bank. According to separate arrangements, the Director of the Corporate Services Office may endorse the correspondence on his own.
3. The Corporate Services Office shall supervise the execution of the endorsed instructions and inform the Management Board's members of any delays that have arisen.

Chapter VI. The Rules to reduce conflicts of interest

§ 23

1. Conflict of interest is the problem of conflict between private interests of a member of the Management Board, his or her spouse, relatives, in-laws to the second degree and those with whom he is personally connected, in particular, by remaining in the same household, and obligations arising from his position as a member of the Board, if the private interest may adversely affect proper performance of his duties as a member of the Management Board. A conflict of interest may also result from past personal or professional relationship and pertain to a member of the Management Board individually and collectively, if through joint action of the members of the Management Board, a conflict may arise between their interests and obligations resulting from their functions. A conflict of interest exists also if the activity of a member of the Management Board outside the Bank is impossible to reconcile with the duty of loyalty to the Bank and acting in its best interest.
2. In particular, a conflict of interest may result from business, professional and political activity, hiring relatives, exploiting the potential of Bank's business and information and knowledge acquired in the exercise of his function. Consequently, a member of the Management Board shall refrain from taking any professional or non-professional activity, which could lead to a conflict of interest or adversely affect its reputation as a member of the Management Board.
3. Membership in the Management Board should be the main area of professional activity. In particular, a member of the Management Board shall not be a member of bodies of other entities if the time spent on performance of his function in other companies or its nature prevents him from performing the duties in the Bank in a reliable manner or is in conflict with them.
4. Immediately after the appointment, a member of the Management Board shall inform the Chairman of the Supervisory Board and Secretary of the Supervisory Board of any activity outside of the Bank, indicating whether it is competitive in relation to the activities performed in the Bank, and whether he participates in a competitive company as a partner in a partnership or as a member of a body of a company or any other competitive legal person as a member of its body.
5. A member of the Management Board shall inform the Chairman of the Supervisory Board and the Head of the compliance unit of any circumstances that result or may result in a conflict of interest in connection with the function performed in the Management Board, including of being in a kinship, affinity or other close non-service relationship to any of the other members of the Management Board, members of the Supervisory Board or employees of the Bank. Moreover, a member of the Management Board shall not, without the consent of the Supervisory Board, engage in competitive business or participate in any competitive business, within the meaning of Art. 380 of the Act of September 15, 2000 the Polish Code of Commercial Companies.

6. A member of the Management Board shall refrain from participation in decision-making or voting in relation to any matters with regard to which Management Board member may be in a conflict of interest, or if it would undermine his objectivity or ability to properly fulfill his duties towards the Bank, and may request this to be indicated in the minutes. In such a case, a member of the Management Board shall inform other members of the Management Board of the risk of a conflict of interest.
